There was an error in the article, “Outcomes of the multimodal treatment of malignant pleural mesothelioma: the role of surgery [1]”. After the publication of this work [1], we noticed that we had made an error in the title. “Mesothelioma” was spelled incorrectly in the title. The correct spelling of “Mesothelioma” should be “Mesothelioma”. This erratum serves to correct the spelling of “Mesothelioma” in the article’s title. Therefore, we would like to correct the title. A revised version of the title is given below. We sincerely apologize to the readers.
